

US NURSING HOMES UNINSPECTED & NEGLECTED

30% of US nursing facilities are overdue for their standard inspections, which are required at least once every 15 months.

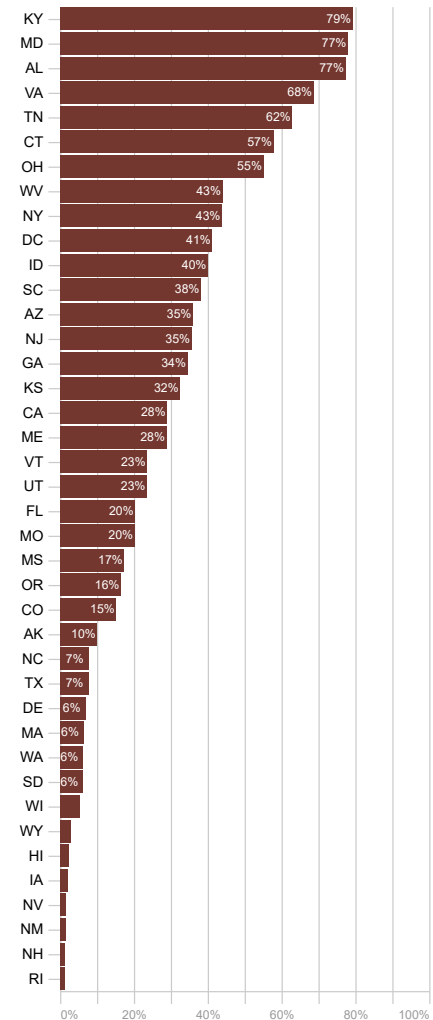

Inspection results are used to identify facility deficiencies, calculate public ratings, and incentivize facilities.

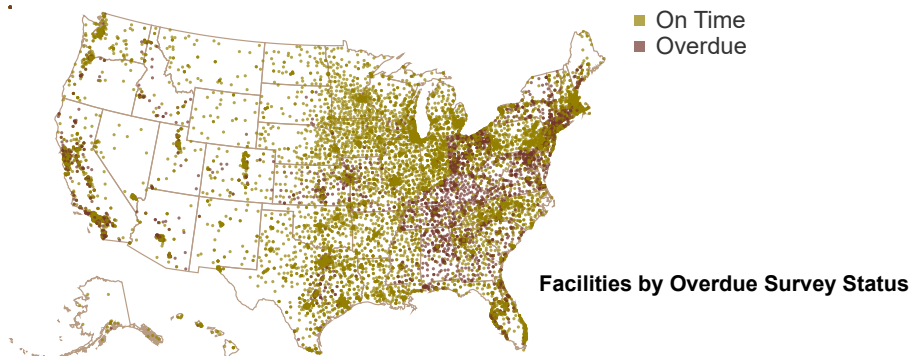

Federal funding for nursing home inspections has flatlined since 2015.

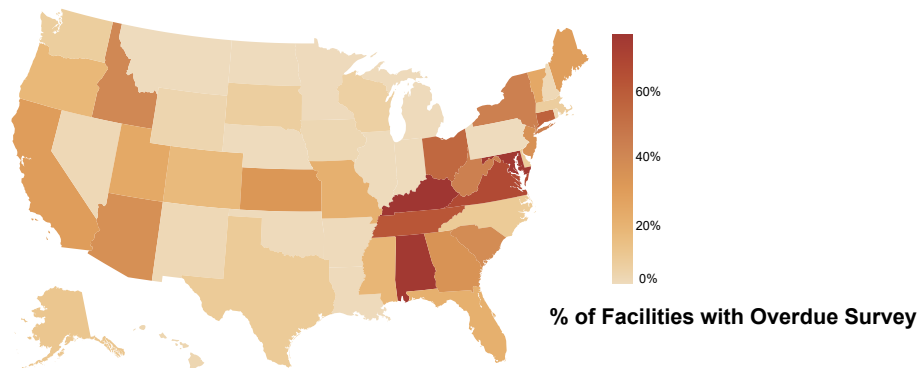

% of state facilities overdue for surveys

< 5% overdue inspections: AR, IL, IN, LA, MI, MN, MT, ND, NE, OK, PA

Facilities by Overdue Survey Status

% of Facilities with Overdue Survey

State survey agencies struggle with understaffing, burnout, and high employee turnover

